OFFER DESCRIPTION

1. Scope

The Centre for the Study of the Sociology and Aesthetics of Music (CESEM; UID 693) opens a tender for the award of 2 (two) research studentships, hereinafter referred to as PhD Research Studentships, under the FCT Regulation for Research Studentships (RBI), and the Research Fellow Holder Statute (EBI).

The research project leading to the completion of the academic degree of Doctor of the selected scholarship holders will need to be justifiably integrated in the lines of action of the Strategic Project of the Centre for the Study of the Sociology and Aesthetics of Music (CESEM; UID 693), and must be developed by candidates or postgraduate students enrolled in the following Doctoral Programmes:

Doctoral Programme in Musical Sciences (NOVA FCSH)

Doctoral Programme in Musicology (University of Évora)

2. Work plan

The studentship holder's research work plan should fit into the project "History of Music in Portugal and Brazil", under development at CESEM. The candidates must explicitly identify how their working plans and objectives will contribute to the development of the aforementioned project, under the scientific coordination of a supervisor of CESEM (full time Professor or Researcher).

Fellowship duration

3. The duration of the studentships is, as a rule, annual, renewable up to a maximum of four years (48 months), and these cannot be granted for a period of less than 3 consecutive months.

4. Application details

Applications must be sent to: concursosbolsasdoutoramento@fcsch.unl.pt until 22/06/2022 (23:59 WEST) with the subject "BD 2 CESEM".

It is essential, under penalty of non-admission to the tender, to annex the following documents to the application:

Elements of the identity card/citizen card/passport;

Curriculum vitae of the candidate;

Certified records of the previous academic degrees held, specifying, mandatorily, the final classification, and, if possible, the classifications obtained in all the taken curricular units, or, alternatively, a declaration of honour by the candidate declaring that they have completed the Graduate's Degree or the Master's Degree at the time of the application deadline;

Proof of recognition of academic degrees awarded by foreign higher education institutions and registration of the conversion of their final classification to the Portuguese classification scale, or, alternatively, declaration of honour of the candidate declaring that they have obtained the recognition of the foreign degree equivalent to that of a Graduate's Degree or a Master's Degree at the time the application deadline;

Research project to be developed, which must include: The title of the proposal (maximum 40 words); the proposal abstract (maximum 150 words); State of the Art (maximum 500 words), or review of relevant literature, which gathers, analyses, and discusses published information on the subject, with the purpose of theoretically supporting the object of investigation, as well as pointing out the originality of the proposal; the objectives to be achieved with the project development (maximum 300 words); the detailed description (maximum 1000 words), which must present the work plan to be developed and demonstrate how the proposed objectives will be achieved, providing all the fundamental elements to allow the analysis and evaluation by the panel, namely the methodological approach, the description of the tasks to develop, their interdependencies and chaining, as well as the corresponding execution deadlines; and bibliographic references, up to a maximum of 35, which support the work plan, formatted consistently and in accordance with an approved scientific referencing style, such as the the Revista Portuguesa de Musicologia's norm.

Motivation letter;

Two recommendation letters. Letters written by the evaluation panel will not be accepted;

That the application and all documents associated with it, including letters of motivation and recommendation, are written in Portuguese or English.

With regard to the above-mentioned admissibility requirements, it is important to note:

In the case of academic degrees awarded by foreign higher education institutions, and in order to ensure that the application follows the principle of equal treatment to candidates holding foreign and national academic degrees, the recognition of these grades and the conversion of their final classification to the Portuguese classification scale is mandatory.

The recognition of academic degrees and foreign diplomas, as well as the conversion of the final classification (GPA) to the Portuguese classification scale, may be required in any public higher education institution, or in the General-Directorate of Higher Education (DGES, only for the case of automatic recognition). In this regard, we urge you to consult the DGES portal at the following address: <http://www.dges.gov.pt>

Only candidates who have completed the cycle of studies leading to a Graduate's Degree or Master's Degree at the time of the application deadline shall be admitted. If they do not yet hold the certificate of completion of the course, a declaration of honour by the candidates, in which they declare they have completed the qualifications necessary for the purpose of the tender by the end of the application deadline, will be accepted. The awarding of the studentship is always dependent on the delivering, in the contracting stage, of the evidence of completion of the academic qualifications necessary for the granting of the studentship.

e) Doctoral Studentship requirements

Research studentship contracts are concluded directly with FCT.

The following documents must be mandatorily sent, at the time of the possible granting of the studentship, for the purposes of its contractualization:

Elements of the identity card/citizen card/passport.

Copy of the Records of the academic degrees the applicant may hold;

Work plan;

Presentation of the proof of the recognition of foreign academic degrees and conversion of the respective final classifications to the Portuguese classification scale, if applicable;

Proof of registration and enrolment in in one of the Doctoral Programs identified in this Notice;

Statement(s) by the supervisor(s) assuming responsibility for the supervision of the work plan, pursuant to Article 5th of the Statute of the Research Fellow (draft of the declaration to be made available by the FCT);

Document proving the acceptance of the candidate by the institution where the research activities will take place, whilst ensuring the necessary conditions for its good development, as well as the fulfilment of the duties provided for in Article 13th of the Statute of the Research Fellow (draft statement to be made available by FCT);

Updated document proving compliance with the exclusive dedication regime (draft declaration to be made available by FCT).

The granting of the studentship is still dependent on:

compliance with the requirements foreseen in the current Opening Notice; of the result of the scientific evaluation;

the absence of unjustified non-compliance with the grantee's duties under a previous studentship contract funded, directly or indirectly, by FCT;

FCT's budgetary availability.

Failure to deliver any of the documents necessary to complete the process of contracting of the studentship, within 6 months from the date of communication of the conditional decision to grant the studentship, implies the expiry of the aforementioned concession and the closure of the process.

Researcher Profiles: The Doctoral Scholarships are intended for candidates who have completed the necessary conditions to enroll in the following Doctoral Programs - Doctoral Programme in Musical Sciences (NOVA FCSH) | Doctoral Programme in Musicology (University of Évora)- who at the time of application have not defended the final course work or have defended it for less than two years (when registered at NOVA FCSH), and who wish to carry out research activities leading to the attainment of the academic degree of doctor at CESEM or at host institutions associated with it.
