

University of Salford
MANCHESTER

Music & Online Cultures Research Network

Summer Symposium

Seminar Room 3, Chapman Building, University of Salford

For postgraduate and early career researchers of music & online cultures

28 June 2023
10am – 5:30pm

Featuring a keynote presentation from Dr Holly Rogers (Goldsmiths) co-editor of YouTube and Music: Online Culture and Everyday Life and Remediating Sound: Repeatable Culture, YouTube and Music (Bloomsbury, 2023)

Methods workshop on approaches to studying online music cultures led by Jenessa Williams (University of Leeds) and Dr Edward Katrak Spencer (University of Oxford/University of Manchester)

Opportunities to discuss your work and meet others studying a range of cutting-edge topics, such as streaming services, livestreaming platforms, social media, cloud-based songwriting, web-based communities, and AI and music

<http://tiny.cc/mocren2023>

Apply in advance via eventbrite

MOCReN Steering Committee

Joana Freitas, NOVA University of Lisbon

Steven Gamble, University of Bristol

Maria Perevedentseva, University of Salford

Edward Katrak Spencer, University of Oxford/University of Manchester

Jenessa Williams, University of Leeds

mocren.org